

Agenda Item No:	6
Committee:	Cabinet
Date:	7 November 2025
Report Title:	Extension of the Norfolk Street Public Spaces Protection Order (PSPO)

1 Purpose / Summary

- 1.1 To extend the Norfolk Street passageway PSPO by a further 3 years.

2 Key Issues

- 2.1 As per Appendix One, there is a PSPO in place which prevents access through a passageway located between Norfolk Street and West Street in Wisbech.
- 2.2 This Order expires on the 18th July 2026
- 2.3 PSPOs are made under the Anti-Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014.
- 2.4 There is no cost to the Council in extending this Order save for Officer time and printing costs.
- 2.5 A Consultation has been carried out, including formal letters to identified statutory consultees and a wider public survey which ran between August 26th - 14th September 2025.
- 2.6 A summary of the public consultation is at Appendix Two
- 2.7 Consultation was undertaken in accordance with legislation, and the following were consulted:
- The Chief Constable of Cambridgeshire Constabulary (statutory)
 - Wisbech Neighbourhood Policing Inspector
 - The Police and Crime Commissioner of Cambridgeshire (statutory)
 - Cambridgeshire County Council Highway
 - Wisbech Town Council
 - District Ward Councillors
 - Wisbech Fire and Rescue
 - Businesses in and around the affected area
 - Residents and landlords in and around the affected area
- 2.8 The above consultees were all in favour of extending the Order – a summary can be found at Appendix Two.

- 2.9 Legal advice has been received to ensure the process followed accords with legislation.
- 2.10 The legislation can be found at Chapter 2 Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014.
- 2.11 Appendix Three is the wording of the proposed Order.
- 2.12 Following legal advice, the wording has been altered to the proposed Order in comparison to the original Order. This has been highlighted in yellow within Appendix Three. This change does not affect the proposed renewal as no changes have been made to the prohibitions or requirements.
- 2.13 If the Order is extended, we will have to publicise the approved extension and notify Wisbech Town Council and Cambridgeshire County Council.

3 Recommendations

- 3.1 To approve the extension of the PSPO for a further 3-year period which prevents access through a passageway located between Norfolk Street and West Street in Wisbech.

Report:

4 BACKGROUND AND INTENDED OUTCOMES

- 4.1 The Anti-Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014, hereafter known as the Act, came into effect on 20th October 2014 making a number of changes to the law on anti-social behaviour. A key change was the introduction of PSPOs to replace DPPOs, dog control orders and gating orders in addition to a range of other behaviours that local authorities can now regulate in public spaces

- 4.2 The Anti-social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014 gives power to Local Authorities to create PSPOs if they are satisfied that activities carried on in a public place within the authority's area have had a detrimental effect on the quality of life of those in the locality, or it is likely that activities will be carried on in a public place within that area and that they will have such an effect. The second condition is that the effect, or likely effect, of the activities is, or is likely to be persistent, unreasonable and justifies the introduction of the Order.
- 4.3 Public Space Protection Orders (PSPOs) are intended to deal with a particular nuisance or problem in a particular area that is detrimental to the local community's quality of life, by imposing conditions on the use of that area which apply to everyone. They are designed to ensure the law-abiding majority can use and enjoy public spaces, safe from anti-social behaviour
- 4.4 PSPOs can be drafted based on the specific issues being faced in a particular public space and can include multiple restrictions and requirements in one Order. Examples of restrictions might include:
- controlling dogs
 - restricting access to an area
 - misuse of substances
 - tackling noise nuisance
 - tackling unreasonable behaviour having a detrimental effect on the community
- 4.5 Section 60(2) of the Act states: Before the time when a public spaces protection order is due to expire, the local authority that made the order may extend the period for which it has effect if satisfied on reasonable grounds that doing so is necessary to prevent—
- (a) occurrence or recurrence after that time of the activities identified in the order, or
- (b) an increase in the frequency or seriousness of those activities after that time.
- 4.6 Based on the response of the community consultation, Fenland District Council are satisfied that the original associated anti-social behaviour, namely litter, urination, defecation, drugs, drinking and sexual activity, has reduced within the passageway, because of the PSPO. If the PSPO were not to be renewed, anti-social behaviour would likely return.
- 4.7 A PSPO can be extended for up to 3 years. Legislation requires there to be a review before the 3-year period expires. The outcome of the review can lead to a renewal, amendment or removal of the existing PSPO. It is proposed that the PSPO sought is made for a full 3-year period and with no amendments to the restrictions.

5 REASONS FOR RECOMMENDATIONS

- 5.1 The passageway had been identified as a location for anti-social behaviour including urination, defecation and litter, the impact of which was having a detrimental impact upon the local community.
- 5.2 Following our community consultation with local businesses, residents and landlords, and enquiries conducted with Fenland District Council Streetscene team the PSPO was introduced in July 2023. The introduction of the PSPO has mostly prevented the associated anti-social behaviour from continuing. However, litter continues to be a nuisance at the gate entrance, albeit not at the same level of severity as compared to prior to the Order coming into place. The extension of the Order is believed necessary, as prescribed in points (a) & (b) of Section 60(1) above, to prevent occurrence or recurrence or an increase in the frequency or seriousness of those activities.

6 CONSULTATION

- 6.1 Legislation states who must and could be consulted. This is stated within S.72 of the Anti-Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014.
- 6.2 Consultation was conducted with the following:
- Chief Constable of Cambridgeshire Constabulary (statutory)
 - Police and Crime Commissioner (statutory)
 - Wisbech Neighbourhood Policing Inspector
 - Wisbech Town Council
 - District Ward Councillors
 - Wisbech Fire and Rescue
 - Cambridgeshire County Council Highways
- 6.3 Further evidence was provided by the Wisbech Neighbourhood Policing Team and FDC Streetscene, this can be found within Appendix Two.
- 6.4 Residents (and their landlords) and local businesses within the locality were written to about the proposed extension and invited to provide their comments.
- 6.5 Six local businesses were visited in person by members of staff from the Community Safety Team to discuss the proposed renewal and seek their views on whether they support this.

- 6.6 A survey was placed on the FDC website and shared on the FDC Facebook page from 26/09/2025 until the 14/09/2025, inviting views on the proposal.
- 6.7 A summary of responses can be found in Appendix Two.
- 6.8 Out of 43 responses, 100% supported the extension of the PSPO.

7 ALTERNATIVE OPTIONS CONSIDERED

- 7.1 The other options are to allow the Order to expire or to extend with an amendment.
- 7.2 If the Order were allowed to expire then we would likely see a return of the associated anti-social behaviour to the passageway.
- 7.3 It is not felt necessary to seek an amendment to the Order based upon consultation feedback, save for those suggested by our legal advisers.

8 IMPLICATIONS

8.1 Legal Implications

- 8.2 The legal implications are as detailed within the main body of the report. Fenland District Council is statutorily empowered to take the action proposed and has fulfilled its wider obligations by undertaking a period of consultation as well as seeking input from legal advisers at the commencement of the renewal process of putting this proposal together for consideration.

8.3 Financial Implications

- 8.4 None save for Officer's time and printing costs for the consultation.

8.5 Equality Implications

Further evidence was provided by the Wisbech Neighbourhood Policing Team and the Fenland District Council Streetscene team. They were not statutory consultees but provided evidence.

Wisbech Neighbourhood Policing Team provided the following data which was searched using the relevant Postcode of which the passageway is situated within.

Year (July – July)	ASB Incidents	All Incidents	Alcohol Marker	Drugs Marker
2021 - 2022	16	141	12	2
2022 - 2023	9	103	13	4
2023 - 2024	15	148	7	9
2024 - 2025	8	106	5	8

A limitation of this data is that the Police were unable to isolate the data specifically to the passageway, but rather the Postcode areas around it. As the Passageway is a very small area in comparison with the whole Postal code areas searched, it is difficult to clearly define in data terms the exact impact the PSPO has had. The Fenland NPT inspector does support for the renewal and commented that 'Removal of the PSPO will undoubtedly have a negative impact locally.'

The Streetscene team provided that no Fixed Penalty Notices have been issued by themselves for the Norfolk Street PSPO.

In August 2025 letters were sent out to 20 addresses in the local geographical area. These were previously identified as a mixture of residents, property landlords and nearby businesses who could be affected by the proposal. We provided an explanation that we were starting the renewal process of the PSPO and asked for comments on whether they supported a potential renewal. We also provided a physical copy of the questionnaire which was due to go out to the public online. We asked recipients to respond within 21 days by either using the self-addressed envelope, emailing the Community Safety team's shared inbox, or calling the Fenland District Council landline. 2 official responses were received from 2 property landlords, who were in support of the renewal, this is referenced in the above table.

As part of the consultation process, we produced and circulated an online survey through the Fenland District Council website, and social media pages. The survey was live between the 26th of August 2025 and the 14th of September 2025.

43 individuals completed the survey, with 100% supporting the renewal of the PSPO. The results of this are shown below, including an opportunity for comments to be made.

Assessing Equality – The Equality Act 2010

Customer Impact Assessment – Public Spaces Protection Orders (PSPO's)

Name and brief description of policy being analysed

Briefly summarise the policy including any key information such as aims, context etc; note timescales and milestones for new policies; use plain language – NO JARGON; refer to other documents if required

The Anti-Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014, hereafter known as the Act, came into effect on 20th October 2014 making a number of changes to the law on anti-social behaviour. A key change was the introduction of PSPO's to replace Designated Public Places Orders (DPPO's), dog control orders and gating orders in addition to a range of other behaviours that local authorities can now regulate in public spaces.

The Act has introduced simpler, more effective powers to tackle anti-social behaviour that provide better protection for victims and communities. This includes the introduction of Public Spaces Protection Order (PSPO).

Councils will be responsible for making the new PSPO although enforcement powers will be much broader.

Public Space Protection Orders (PSPO's) are intended to deal with a particular nuisance or problem in a particular area that is detrimental to the local community's quality of life, by imposing conditions on the use of that area which apply to everyone. They are designed to ensure the law-abiding majority can use and enjoy public spaces, safe from anti-social behaviour.

PSPO's are drafted based on the specific issues being faced in a particular public space, and can include multiple restrictions and requirements in one order. Examples of restrictions might include:

- Controlling the use of dogs;
- Restricting access to an area;
- Misuse of substances;
- Tackling noise nuisance; or
- Unreasonable behaviour having a detrimental effect on the community.

A PSPO can be made where the council is satisfied, after conducting the test, that the activity or activities, carried on in a public place, it proposes to restrict:

- Have had, or are likely to have, a detrimental effect on the quality of life of those in the locality;
- Is, or is likely to be, persistent or continuing in nature;
- Is, or is likely to be, unreasonable; and
- Justifies the restrictions imposed.

A PSPO can be used to restrict access to an area where the test has been met.

Information used for customer analysis

The following bodies were consulted:

- Chief of Police
- Police and Crime Commissioner
- Wisbech Neighbourhood Policing Inspector
- Cambridgeshire County Council (Highways)
- Wisbech Town Council
- The Wards District Councillors

We also sought the opinion of the Fenland District Council (FDC) Streetscene team.

All consultees were in favour of extending the Order.

A Public Consultation was carried out between the 26/08/2025 and the 14/09/2025, this included letters sent to residents/businesses in the locality, Community Safety Officers visiting businesses in the locality, and a public online survey. The public online survey saw 43 responses, with 100% supporting extending the Order.

Note when analysis will be reviewed; include any equality indicators and performance against those indicators

At the time of reviewing this document the PSPO is subject of a legal requirement to review every three years. Should there be any change in the current PSPO areas and/or restrictions this document will be subject further review. At present it is felt the PSPO has had a positive effect in reducing ASB in the area (As confirmed by the consultee and public consultation) and therefore it is felt a PSPO has been and continues to be an effective measure in combating this.

EIA's are subject of an annual review.
