Justin's Recycling Adventure

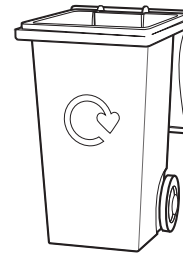

Fill in the gaps to complete Justin's story using the words at the bottom of the page.

Draw his adventure in the boxes and tell us what you are doing to help him and his friends to be recycled.

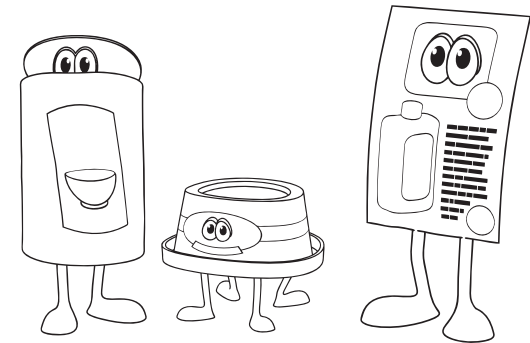

One day, Justin an old _____ was thrown on the ground. Feeling unloved and unwanted he dreamed of becoming an _____.

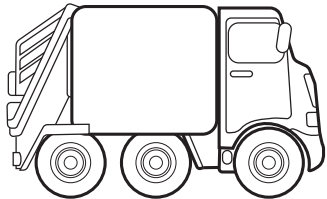

A _____ person picked him up and put him into the blue _____ bin.

Finally he was with his _____, and happy at last. He didn't realise that things were about to get even _____.

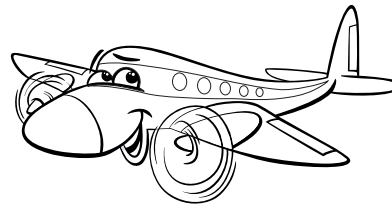

The blue recycling bin was _____ into a _____ and there he met even more recyclables.

Off they went to the recycling _____ where they were cleaned, sorted and sent to _____ to become new things.

That once lonely, unloved tin can called _____ is now recycled and flying all over the world meeting new friends.

How can you help others like Justin live a little? I am going to recycle more because:
